SHERIFF'S SALE AS TRUSTEE
Whereas, Sarah E. Boughe and Henry D. Boughe, her husband, by their certain deed of trust, dated the 21st day of September, 1881, and duly recorded in the Recorder's office of Oregon county, in the State of Wisconsin, in book 12, pages 315, 316 and 317, did convey to John W. Emerson as Trustee, all their right, title and interest in and to the following described real estate, situated, lying and being in the county of Oregon and State of Missouri, to wit:

The west half of section twenty four, township twenty-four, range two, west.

Which said conveyance was made in trust to secure the payment of several sums of money mentioned, and as provided in certain promissory notes or obligations in said deed of trust set forth as described; and

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of said several notes and sums of money in said notes and deed of trust described; and

Whereas, it is provided in said deed of trust that in the case of default, removal from the state, or refusal to act, of John W. Emerson as trustee, the then acting Sheriff of Iron county, Mo., shall act as trustee in his stead, and sell the above described property in case of default; and

Whereas, said Trustee, John W. Emerson, is dead;

Now, therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said notes and deed of trust, and in accordance with the terms of said deed of trust, notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned, Sheriff of Iron county, Missouri, will, by the authority in me vested, on Friday, the 15th day of February, 1901, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the east door of the courthouse, in the town of Ironton, in the county of Iron, in the State of Missouri, proceed to sell the above described real estate (or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said deed of trust and notes at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, for the purpose of satisfying said deed and notes so secured and the cost and expenses of executing said trust.

Ironton, Missouri, Jan. 24, 1901.

PUBLISHED BY
The Democratic National Publishing Co.,
1229 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

A journal indispensable to all citizens who desire to keep posted on public questions. It is acknowledged to be the best exponent of Democratic principles in America. It maintains that Democratic doctrines find their best expression in the platform of the party adopted at Chicago in 1896. It favors bimetalism and opposes banks of issue. It has the ablest corps of contributors of any American newspaper. It gives correct political information. All the news of the week condensed in its columns. A paper for the home and fireside.

What William J. Bryan Says.

APRIL 8, 1899.

EDITOR NATIONAL WATCHMAN:

I congratulate you upon the splendid work the National Watchman is doing. It is honest, earnest, able, and fearless exponent of Jeffersonian democracy and deserves a cordial support. I hope that your circulation will increase until you have readers in every precinct in the United States. The people should support the papers that fight the battle of the people.

Yours truly,
W. J. BRYAN.
